The Responsive Reading of Psalm 52 Charles Huneycutt

Why do you boast, O mighty one, of mischief done against the godly? All day long you are plotting destruction.

Your tongue is like a sharp razor, you worker of treachery.

You love evil more than good, and lying more than speaking the truth.

You love all words that devour, O deceitful tongue.

But God will break you down for ever; he will snatch and tear you from your tent; he will uproot you from the land of the living.

The righteous will see, and fear, and will laugh at the evildoer, saying, ‘See the one who would not take refuge in God, but trusted in abundant riches, and sought refuge in wealth!’

But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God.

I trust in the steadfast love of God forever and ever.

I will thank you forever, because of what you have done.

In the presence of the faithful I will proclaim your name, for it is good.

Acolytes for today are Jonathon Edwards and Ella Waldman.

Our mission for this month is Christmas in July, and to donate to either CBF Global Missions or the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. Envelopes for these offerings may be found in the pew racks and at the entrances.

Looking ahead: There will be a Quarterly Church Conference immediately following worship next Sunday, July 28.

First Baptist Church thanks Joey Whiteside for his work with our youth. Joey recently resigned from this position after nearly three years of service. Please offer your appreciation when you see Joey. Refuge will not meet the rest of the summer, but will resume on September 8 of this year.

“So, you’re a Baptist . . .”

During this month, adults and youth, grades 6-12, will gather for a combined Sunday School experience in the activity building. “So, you’re a Baptist . . .” will explore the good, bad, and the ugly of being a Baptist. In an increasing post-denominational age, when folks know very little about their denominational heritage, and could care about it even less, it is important to understand the unique history and contributions of our Baptist kinfolk. Please join us for this time of education and fellowship.
