The Words for Worship Jeff Harris

On this beautiful day of worship, we gather to praise the wondrous things our Lord has done for us and taught us.

We are eager to worship and praise the Risen Christ.

On this morning, we are mindful of the tasks ahead and aware of our need for support.

We are eager to worship and praise the Risen Christ.

Let us begin in these moments and be open to the challenges and lessons of love.

We are eager to begin. Let us worship the Risen Christ now.

And also with you.

The Responsive Reading of Psalm 138 Carol Hickey

I give you thanks, O Lord, with my whole heart; before the gods I sing your praise;
I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness; for you have exalted your name and your word above everything.

On the day I called, you answered me, you increased my strength of the soul.

All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord, for they have heard the words of your mouth.

They shall sing of the ways of the Lord, for great is the glory of the Lord.

For though the Lord is high, he regards the lowly; but the haughty he perceives from far away.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve me against the wrath of my enemies; you stretch out your hand, and your right hand delivers me.

The Lord will fulfill his purpose for me; your steadfast love, O Lord, endures forever. Do not forsake the work of your hands.
