

Vacation Bible School coming soon! VBS for ages 4 - grade 5, will be June 16-19, Monday-Thursday, 5:30-8:30 pm. The theme for this year is Workshop of Wonders: Imagine and Build with God (W.O.W.). We will help the children experience how the ordinary becomes extraordinary with God through dramas, crafts, games, activities, music, and hours of fun! You can register online at <http://2014.cokesburyvbs.com/FirstBaptistChurchofTryon>.

Thermal Belt Habitat for Humanity ReStore needs volunteers. For more details, please contact the church office.

FBC Tryon is heading to Barter Theatre in Abingdon, VA on July 17. We'll share a meal in historic Abingdon before watching a matinee performance of "Welcome Back to Ivy Gap" (a comedy centered on the First Baptist Church of Ivy Gap). We'll travel via charter bus so the ride will be comfortable and enjoyable. The trip will cost $40, which will cover your ticket and transportation costs. There's plenty of room on the bus so feel free to bring a friend. A sign-up sheet is located in the education foyer.

Roger Williams, the founder of the very first Baptist church in America, First Baptist Church of Providence, RI (he also founded the state of Rhode Island), was a staunch advocate for religious liberty and the separation of church and state. Even though Williams died in 1683, he's planning a trip to FBC Tryon. The Rev. Robert Randolph, retired pastor and chaplain from the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, will present an in-character monologue of Roger Williams during worship on June 29. You will not want to miss this opportunity for worship and education.

Two Great Opportunities for Summer Sabbath:

Backpacking trip in the Roan Highlands, June 27-29.

Church Camping Trip at Orchard Lake in Saluda, August 15-17

Thank you for your generous donations to Baptist Retirement Homes in the month of May. Our gifts for the Baptist Retirement Homes totaled $1,190.

The Call to Worship Candace Wilson

Rushing Wind of the Spirit, breathe new life into us!

Blazing Flame of the Spirit, burn away our fears!

Comforting Presence of the Spirit, heal our wounds.

Let us be prepared to worship and praise you, O Holy Spirit.

Spirit of God, come upon us this day and fill us with your love.

Make us people who will proclaim God's good news in all that we do.

Amen.

The Invocation Katie Cothran

The Responsive Reading Acts 2:1-8, 16-21 Lora Baker

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.
And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.

All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem.
And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?
And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?'

No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

"In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

The Celebration of the Lord's Supper

The Time of Silence

The Invitation to the Table

Jeff Harris

Come to this table, not because you must but because you may,
not because you are strong, but because you are weak.
Come, not because any goodness of your own gives you a right to come,
but because you need mercy and help.
Come, because you love the Lord a little and would like to love him more.
Come, because he loved you and gave himself for you.
Come and meet the risen Christ, for we are his Body.

The Words of Institution

Jeff Harris

We give thanks that the Lord Jesus, on the night before he died, took bread, and after giving thanks to you, he broke, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take, eat. This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.
In the same way he took the cup, saying:
This cup is the new covenant sealed in my blood, shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me.

The Prayer

Candace Wilson

The Distribution of the Elements

When directed, please make your way down the center aisle, go to the station on your side of the sanctuary, take a wafer, dip it in the cup, return to your seat by the side aisle.
