CHAT WITH THE PASTOR

The forty days of Lent—crescendoing with Holy Week and Good Friday—prepare us for an extraordinary celebration of the Resurrection. But undoubtedly, the Monday after Easter leaves us asking, "Now what?" Easter Sunday was great, but what do we do now? Yes, Jesus Christ is risen, but what do we do about it? Are we somehow different because of his resurrection, and if so, how?

For one thing, Easter is more than a day. Easter is a season—a fifty-day season in the life of the church. But even more so, Easter is the new reality in which we live. Jesus' life, death, and resurrection are the first fruits of this new reality (see I Corinthians 15), a reality that is fully realized in John's vision of a new heaven and a new earth (see Revelation 21). The resurrection of Jesus is the beginning of God's resurrection of the entire created order, including you and me. To put it lightly, it's a big deal.

But what if it doesn't feel like it? How can Easter Sunday seem so glorious and wonderful and Monday still feel like, well, Monday? One of the reasons is that feeling follows action. If you want it to feel like Easter, you must act like it is still Easter. And it just so happens that we have a great opportunity for you to "act like it's Easter" (since it still will be)! On May 5, we will "act like it's Easter" as we spread God's love and hope through our annual Mission Initiative. Easter and Resurrection are about new life and new hope, and that is exactly what you can help spread as you love your neighbors in tangible ways. I hope you will participate.

Let us live like it's Easter . . . because it is!

- Jeff

WELCOME, NEW MEMBERS!

Danny and Erin Fox and their two children, Jackson and Scout, joined our church on Sunday March 25. Danny is originally from Hendersonville, NC and Erin is from Murphy, NC. They moved to Columbus and bought a house off Skyuka Road in 2003. Erin will be transferring her letter from Mt. Carmel Baptist Church in Hiawassee Dam, NC and Danny has made a profession of faith and will be baptized soon. Erin is a ninth grade English teacher in Gaffney, SC and Danny works at Tool Technology in Inman, SC. Both of their children, Jack who is 4 and Scout, 8 months, attend Midway Weekday Ministry for Children at Midway Baptist Church. Danny enjoys all outside activities and anything historical, while Erin enjoys theater, dance and reading. They both consider their children wonderful blessings and love spending time with them doing "fun" stuff. We welcome Danny and Erin to church membership and look forward to watching Jack and Scout grow in the Christian faith. We are especially looking forward to Danny's river baptism.

MUSINGS ON MUSIC

Music speaks what cannot be expressed, soothes the mind and gives it rest, heals the heart and makes it whole, flows from heaven to the soul—Author Unknown.

Music expresses that which cannot be put into words and cannot remain silent—Victor Hugo

The aim and final end of all music should be none other than the glory of God and the refreshment of the soul—Johann Sebastian Bach

The philosopher in me sometimes wonders if we experience life in the same way as others. Do strawberries taste the same to you and me? Does the smell of a baby awaken the same sensations in all of us? Does music stir us all the same way emotionally? I suppose we can never know the answers to that, but I have found in the past few months that the amazing members of our church choir put everything they have into using their voices to bring glory to God and refresh our souls. I remember the first time I suggested we would memorize a piece of music — looks of horror and groans of dismay were the response. Today, they grin and then sing with their souls, not just their voices. They dedicate time, energy and talent each week as their gift of praise.

Each piece of music we sing is chosen for the combination of sound and words. Perhaps you find that our music heals your heart. Maybe it is the words that speak to your mind. Every part of the music program in the church is chosen to bring our souls closer to heaven. The music of piano, organ, choir, and yes, the congregation, all blend together for that singular purpose. Whether you are a professionally-trained musician or cannot hear the difference in two notes, the purpose of music in church is not to entertain, but, as J.S. Bach said, bring glory to God and refreshment to the soul. In that spirit, lift up your heart, your smile and your voice and join us each week as we all praise God.—Cheryl Roach, Interim Choir Director

Our Fields of Hope project is up and running!

Volunteers helped to cut a half-ton of potatoes for planting, which we will share with our neighbors in Polk County. The potatoes were planted on March 31st, and we hope for a bountiful yield to share later in the season. As the Amish say..."Many hands make light work!"

On Monday, March 19, Polk County Human Services Building was dedicated and named the "Howard B. Greene Human Services Building." This building houses the Department of Social Services. First Baptist Church is thankful for Howard and Mary's faithful service to Polk County. We are also thankful that they are part of our congregation.
