Chat with the Preacher Summer is a great time for Sabbath

I love this time of year. Or at least I did when I was a student. And it's not because of the increasingly warm temperatures, or the mosquitoes that seem to accompany said temperatures. There are two words that capture my love of this season: "summer" and "break."

Summer break is an amazing gift that you can only fully appreciate when you no longer have one.

A good friend of mine enjoyed summer break so much that he decided to become a teacher. He liked Christmas break, too; but summer break was the driving factor of his vocational choice. (And just for the record, he's a fine teacher who no longer teaches simply because of summer break—although it's still his favorite time of year.)

One of the great benefits of school calendars is that there are clear beginnings and endings, with breaks in between. These beginnings, endings, and breaks provide a helpful rhythm that help keep you engaged and fresh.

But the rest of the world rarely works this way. While weekends and vacations provide leisure and renewal, we essentially go from one day to another without great distinction. And while the church's calendar and the culture's calendar do provide rhythm and structure, neither provides anything like summer break.

There is, however, a commandment within the Jewish and Christian traditions about taking a break.

The Hebrew Scriptures begin with a beautiful, poetic account of Creation. For six days, God creates the cosmos and after a long week's work God kicks off his shoes, whistles a tune, and sits for a spell. The Scriptures record it this way, "So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation" (Genesis 2:3).

These rhythms of work and rest are such an essential part of our being that God commands us to do nothing for one day out of every seven: "Observe the Sabbath day and keep it holy, as the Lord your God commanded you. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work" (Deuteronomy 5:12-4a).

If the Almighty needed a break, is it probable that we might too?

Keeping Sabbath isn't a mere suggestion for Jews and Christians, it's one of the ten commandments. Ironically, we (by we, I mean Christians; Jewish tradition continues to take the practice of Sabbath seriously) tend to ignore the one commandment that says we can "kick back, relax, and do nothing for the day." Doesn't make any sense.

Except that our culture doesn't reward Sabbath. Instead, we worship work and celebrate busyness. We keep busy at all costs; ultimately believing we are what we produce. Limiting our busyness does little to enhance our status. While doing more makes us feel important and needed. So we go and go and go.

OPPORTUNITIES

Sabbath invites us to slow down, breathe deeply, and open our selves to the Creator who longs to renew us. After all, Sabbath isn't something we have to do, it's something we get to do. Sabbath is a gift. As Jesus explained, "The Sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the Sabbath" (Mark 2:27).

So I hope you can enjoy some Sabbath-breaks this summer.

Here are a few we are offering:

- -Whitewater Rafting on the French Broad River, June 16
- -Backpacking Retreat, July 8-10
- -Camping on the Davidson River, July 22-24
- -Carowinds, July 26
- -Asheville Tourists Baseball Game, August 7
- -Plus, in July there will be no Sunday School, and Worship will begin at 10am. We hope this "change of pace" will encourage rest, renewal, and attendance.

In addition to the Sabbath-breaks First Baptist is offering, here are some of my favorites:

Take a nap. Enjoy a hike (Black Balsam Knob is hard to beat). Walk on the beach. Read a book (or three). Go swimming. Use the grill more than the stove. Eat at least one really good watermelon. Feast on tomato sandwiches (with Duke's mayonise and black pepper). Go fishing. Soak in the river. Lounge on the couch (or by a shade tree). Listen to live music. Dine with friends. Catch a baseball game. You get the idea.

Take a break. Do no work. And enjoy it!
Thus saith the Lord!

Grace and Peace, Jeff

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH FAMILY HARMON FIELD WORSHIP, MAY 22

May 22 was a wonderful day to worship outdoors at Harmon Field. The weather was cooperative, the picnic food was delicious, the music from Phil and Gaye Johnson was a delightful accompaniment, and we got to witness the baptisms of our newest members, Brian and Angela Radaker. We are thankful for the gift of baptism, and for the opportunity to share in it together.

SPIRITUALITY BACKPACK RETREAT JULY 8-10

We had a great time backpacking in the Grayson Highlands / Mount Rogers area last year, and we're looking forward to another great trip. This year's retreat will be July 8-10. I hope you'll consider joining us.

The purpose of the backpacking trip is to provide an opportunity for Sabbath in a natural environment and to help participants explore opportunities for prayer and silence. We'll also have a lot of fun! This trip is open to anyone 16 or older who can carry at least 30 pounds on his/her back, while hiking 5 to 7 miles per day in mountainous terrain. If you are under 16, you must be accompanied by a parent.

VBS AUGUST 1-4

Vacation Bible School at FBC is scheduled for Aug 1-4 (Monday-Thursday), 6-8pm. This year's theme is "Surf Shack: Catch the Wave of God's Amazing Love." We need your help. We are looking for preschool teachers and leaders. For children grades 1-5 we need activity center leaders in Bible storytelling, crafts, recreation, and missions. We also need adult guides for age-level groups, an assembly leader, supply coordinator, and publicity coordinator. If you would be willing to help with VBS in any of these areas, please contact Candy Wilson.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY FROM OUR VISITATION TEAM!

The Visitation Team made gift bags for Mother's Day, for fifteen of our sweet mothers of Tryon First Baptist Church. We were a little short-handed with vacation time starting, and we were happy to have Diane Guffey help us out with putting our bags together. I feel so very blessed to be a part of the Visitation Team as I know all the tem members are. We are the ones who get to see the smiles that our visit and small gift brings. We hear the sincere thank-yous. We feel the hugs. Sometimes we even share a tear together. What a true blessing, and what a wonderful team to a part of!

-Linda Fincher and the Visitation Team

Hooked

The David Stillerman Fishing Project of FBC Tryon

First Baptist Families,

We'd love to have you go fishing with us.

While Hooked is great for parents and children, everyone is welcome!

You do not need any fishing equipment (you can certainly bring your own if you wish), experience, or license. We will supply fishing equipment, instruction, drinks, and a light dinner. We do ask that at least one parent be present with children. This is great opportunity to foster friendships with each other, and with others from our community (especially with foster children and those involved with Big Brothers/Big Sisters.)

Here are a few reasons we think "Hooked" is worthwhile:

- -Get outside . . . teach kids and others to enjoy and respect the outdoors.
- -Encourage friendships . . . with children and with adults.
- -Learn how to fish . . . fishing is a great hobby, that teaches patience and perseverance, builds confidence, and can be enjoyed for a lifetime.
- -Have fun!

We'll go fishing at these times and places, and hope that you can join us:

June 12 Tryon Estates, 2-5pm

Sept 25 White Oak Mountain, 2-5pm

Oct 16 Tryon Estates, 2-5pm

If you plan to attend, please RSVP, as that will help provide the correct amount of fishing equipment, volunteers, and food.

For more information or to RSVP please call: First Baptist Church of Tryon at 828.859.5375 or by texting Jeff Harris at 828.899.1386 or by emailing jeffreycharris@gmail.com
