Music for Gathering

Welcome

Call to Worship

This is a day of remembrance.

We lift up the cup of salvation
and call on the name of the Lord.

Throughout the generations,
we have received and handed on to others
what the Lord has given to us:

the bread of his body; the cup of the new covenant;
proclaiming the Lord's death until he comes again.

In growing darkness we gather.

Our Lenten journey has brought us here.

Jesus, our Teacher and Lord, sets before us
bread,

a cup.

He gives us an example

and a commandment ever new:

to love one another as he has loved us.

This is how everyone will know we are his disciples,
when we love each other.

Let Us Break Bread Together

Confession of Sin

Holy God,
you called us to serve others as Christ served us.

We confess that we have not followed Christ's example.

We turn away from people in need.

You have commanded us to love one another
as you have loved us.

BREAK BREAD

Jeff Harris

We confess that we do not love so generously.

Gathered on this Holy Thursday,
we confess that we are capable of denying
and betraying you and one another,
no less than the first disciples.

Forgive us, merciful God,
and cleanse us of all our sin;
then guide our feet to walk with you always.

Words of Forgiveness Psalm 103:8, 12-14

Jeff Harris

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in steadfast love.
As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us. As a father has compassion for his children, so the Lord has compassion for those who fear him. For he knows how we were made;
he remembers that we are dust.
